

1. Singapore Botanic Gardens

In Singapore the business activities are open at 11gio. So in the meantime, what do you do. The answer is it to Singapore Botanic Garden. Park is open from morning at 5gio. You'll wander through the streets of wet grass, and tropical rain forests to the national orchid garden to admire the collection of more than 1,000 species of orchids, and 2,000 species of orchids natural pair. After visiting, you should enjoy a traditional breakfast of boiled eggs, including Singapore, coffee, toast coconut jam.

2. Artworks at the Ritz - Carlton

To a hotel to enjoy the works of art can make you wonder but Ritz - Carlton Hotel is a special. Coming here, you will immediately see the work of Frank Stella weighs three tons mounted in pairs at the entrance and glass sculpture by Dale Chihuly hangs two doors - this is a work in collections contemporary sculpture best university in Southeast Asia. Also, in public spaces and in the living room of the Ritz - Carlton, you also admire the works of Andy Warhol, David Hockney, Rainer Gross, Henry Moore or Robert Zakanitch ...

3. Chinatown

If you want to explore a destination in Singapore culture, go to the Chinatown Heritage Centre. Here you will find the road scene, the bedroom, kitchen late 19th and early 20th centuries are reproduced accurately. This is part of Singapore history beside other interesting things. Now out of this area you can also choose to purchase certain items at the souvenir shop.

4. Plastic surgery

If you want to combine the medical or plastic surgery in the trip, you can arrange to go to Camden Medical Center. Or want to "upgrade" your face without surgery, you should see your doctor known Woffles Wu.

5. Cheap Electronics

If you want to find a handheld camera, portable DVD players, mobile phones, high-tech camera, MP3 player or a laptop first ... go to Funan Digitalife Mall and Sim Lim Square. Prices here usually 10-20% cheaper than market price. Especially in Sim Lim Square, you can bargain for a little less and if payment in cash will be reduced a few dollars.

6. Street fashion

But Haji is a small street in the heart of the dead but Haji Muslim known as a "paradise of fashion." Not spectacular display, usually for clothes in the small crowded shop. These are the fashion show and was taken back from the Meatpacking Le Marais in Paris or New York. Here, you even see the whole collection of Garni or Austin Powers ... And if you feel hungry you can enjoy a lunch in the Middle East-style cafe located on the corner le Caire.

7. Singapore swings back

165m High Flyer, Singapore Flyer is the world's largest swing back. If to this country, you should also try to go over view of the city with skyscrapers, especially in the evening to admire the beauty of the sparkling night Lion Island. Ticket prices are going for a 29, 50 Sing dollars in 30 minutes time. After returning to the ground, you should have dinner at Seafood Paradise.

8. White Rabbit

In the 1950s, to serve the army barracks at restaurants, bars, galleries, spas springing up racing. Recently, the restaurant - the White Rabbit Bar - which is a fort that had been forgotten church - has been reopened. White Rabbit dish serves European style.

9. Street food

Geylang is the famous cuisine of Singapore's crowded. Come to enjoy the dishes according to the style of Indian, Malay and Chinese dishes like coconut rice, curry chicken in Bali Nasi Lemak, fried noodles and shrimp meat in Kuching Kolo Mee or rice tastes great , the vegetables, tofu in Hakka restaurant ...

10. Zouk

Although quite strict with the rules, but the nightlife of the island is also quite exciting. After nearly two decades, Zouk is still the focal point of fun activities at night. Zouk exciting with lights, dancing, people playing dress up with trendy dance virtuosity. In particular, giant sound system will make you fascinated.